LEADERS REPORT ON CONDITIONS IN SHANGHAI AND FUKIEN

MAYOR CH'EN I TALKS TO SHANGHAI PEOPLE'S DELEGATES -- Canton Nan-fang Jih-pao, 27 Apr 50

Shanghai, 25 April (Hsin-hua) -- General Ch'en I in his report to the third conference of the Shanghai People's Delegates praised the spirit of all classes in seeking to carry out their responsibilities in bond sales, tax collections, and exertions to overcome the effects of KMT bombings.

He said that the stabilization of prices and the elimination of the black market were due to the positive policies of the Central government.

He averred that although profiteers and black-market operators would find the going hard in the future, legitimate private industries, willing to take reasonable profits, promote the proper interests of their workers, and produce to build up the country, would find their efforts rewarding to themselves as well.
